Winter Family Weekend:
This year’s Winter Family Weekend in Louisville is now only three weeks away. The schedule of activities (attached) is now online at http://members.cogwa.org/wfw. One of the new activities planned this year is a children’s clothing swap for all families with children. You will find an advertisement about this specific activity on the website. Of course many sports activities are planned, as well as encouraging and informative seminars, a family fun fair, live music, karaoke, dances, movies, Sabbath school classes, singles’ activities and a free pizza dinner. If you haven’t already made plans to join in the fun, please do so. Go online today to book your housing http://resweb.passkey.com/go/2015WFW.

From Mark Winner, coordinator, Winter Family Weekend:
This year’s adult dance theme at the Winter Family Weekend in Louisville was “Clown College.” It was intended to be a lighthearted, fun evening with the best costume winning a free night. Sadly, Hollywood and others have distorted people’s views of what clowns are and what their role is. The Barnum & Bailey Circus Clown College was considered a very prestigious degree to obtain, as it led many people into entertaining and funny roles either with the circus or within other entertainment fields. This was certainly the thought process behind the selection of that theme. However, today’s entertainment field has often “morphed” clown characters into being something far from what Barnum & Bailey originally intended and certainly far from what we stand for or would agree with. So, we feel it is the better part of wisdom not to have this theme for the dance. We encourage all to come dressed in nice casual. We will have a drawing during the evening for the free hotel night.
