Manuel was a faithful and dedicated servant. He loved his family and provided for them. He loved the Church and was deeply committed to serving the members. He stood strong and resolute during the two major crises in the Church—in 1995 and in 2010. The congregations in Peru remained faithful to God during these and other crises under the humble but strong leadership that Manuel provided. The members loved Manuel, as they had seen him grow and progress since he was a teenager in the Church, attending Ambassador College in Pasadena for two years, and then serving as their pastor for 22 years. He will be greatly missed.
