BIBLE QUIZ – Nehemiah, continued (Answers below)

- Nehemiah had three main enemies: Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arab. They tried to destroy Nehemiah in all of the following ways EXCEPT: (Nehemiah 6:1-14)
  - Attempting to get Nehemiah to meet them somewhere (probably planning to kill him).
  - Accusing him of planning to lead the Jews in a rebellion.
  - Trying to entrap Nehemiah using a harlot.
  - Accusing him of wanting to be king.
  - Attempting to convince Nehemiah to hide in the temple, to protect his life.
- According to Nehemiah 7, what was the status of the city once the doors were hung and the wall finished? (Nehemiah 7:4)
  - The city was large and spacious, but there were few people, and the individual houses were not rebuilt.
  - The city was smaller than it had been originally, but there were many people, and most of the houses had been rebuilt.
  - The city was large, the houses were nearly all rebuilt, and the population was sizable.
  - The city was about half its original size, and roughly half of the houses had been rebuilt, all of them occupied by those who originally returned with Zerubbabel.
- After the project was completed, all the people gathered in front of the Water Gate, to hear the reading of the Law. Who read it to them? (Nehemiah 8:1-3)
  - King Artaxerxes
  - Nehemiah
  - Isaiah, the prophet
  - Ezra
- Following the blessing of the Levites, the leaders signed a covenant to the Lord which specified all of these things EXCEPT: (Nehemiah 10:28-39)
  - Preventing intermarriage of their sons and daughters with those from foreign tribes.
  - Observing the laws of Moses regarding what was unholy to eat.
  - Not buying on the Sabbath or holy days.
  - Making provision for the service of the temple.
  - Bringing the “firstfruits” to the house of the Lord.
- How was it decided who would live in Jerusalem? (Nehemiah 11:1-2)
  - Nehemiah ordered everyone to live in Jerusalem until the city was completely restored.
  - It was strictly on a volunteer basis.
  - The leaders appointed two people from every ten to stay in Jerusalem. Every five years they would alternate with the others.
  - Nehemiah gave them a choice between living in Jerusalem, or living in his 1964 VW van with the flowers painted on the side.
  - The leaders lived in Jerusalem, along with some volunteers. Then they cast lots so that one tenth of the people would remain there also.

6. Who did Nehemiah say, in Chapter 13, would be excluded from the congregation of God? (Nehemiah 13:1-2)
- a. Those who defile the Sabbath
  - b. The Danites
  - c. The Moabites and Ammonites
  - d. Women
  - e. Pagans
7. Nehemiah returned to Persia, then came back to Jerusalem, where he found that the Jews had again intermarried with pagan tribes. Which of the following best describes his response? (Nehemiah 13:25)
- a. He prayed that God would take revenge on them, then went about the business of the temple.
  - b. He had some of them stoned to death, others banished from the people, and issued a new decree of punishment for the sin.
  - c. He cursed them, struck some of them, and shaved off their hair.
  - d. He realized that his previous efforts were in vain, and returned to the Persian palace, where he died.
